You're invited to contribute your cruise survey to help design future Bliss Cruises. We listen to you and read EVERY survey for new content and suggestions.

QUESTIONS?

1. Do I have to be nude? - NO
1. Will I be expected to participate in any lifestyle activities? - NO

NEWCOMERS

If you're new to adult cruising and Bliss specifically, attend one of the newcomers seminars "Sensual Discovery For The First Time aboard Bliss" hosted by James and Champagne, located in the Schooner Bar on Deck 4 from 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m., organized especially for YOU! If you have questions, you can ask Bliss Ambassadors Mike and Lilly or ask Bliss hosts who are wearing Bliss Cruise shirts in blue. The Bliss security team is here to help, too; look for the "men and women in neon yellow."

HOW DO I MEET ANYONE?

Our favorite advice: Just open your mouth...You may be surprised what happens. Be creative and talk to everyone you meet....another couple may be nervously looking for someone like you two, too. You all have one thing in common: Either you're a newbie or you're not. Either way, you'll find it's a good way to start the conversation.

HOW SOON DO YOU PLAY? 4 Styles to Try!

By Mike & Lilly of Diretto Lifestyle Skills

With over 3,000 passengers on Bliss, it's practically impossible to not make a connection. But not every connection moves at the same pace. Some couples prefer a few hours of dancing and drinks to warm up, and some couples like to spend days building a high quality friendship before playtime. And then there's the fast movers that are happy to jump your bones within 15 minutes of meeting you!

From our experiences and from chatting with past Bliss Cruise passengers, we've narrowed it down to four types of couples you'll meet on board: The Quick Pullers, The Daters, The Slow Burners, and The Fantasy Finders.

1. The Quick Pullers

Have you ever made an instant connection on the dancefloor and within a few minutes your new friends are suggesting playtime and even have their toy bag ready to go? You've just met the Quick Pullers!

For them, NOW is always the best time for playtime. Don't be surprised if their proposition seems abrupt to you - they are often very intuitive and can tell right away if you'll be a good match. It's common for them to be leading a group to the playrooms and invite you to join along in the fun right then with little to no conversation. Quick Pullers tend to be a "more the merrier" type. If you can't join the spontaneous playtime at first meeting, grab their info and give them a call later! While their high energy and fast trigger pull may seem a bit too intense for some newbies or those who are looking for a longer date night, this couple is typically great at taking the lead and bringing the fun!

Quick Puller Pros Include: Short time from first meeting to playtime, often willing to play anytime/anywhere, great for group play, often very verbally or physically assertive, high energy, passionate, direct, no wondering if they like you, can sometimes be found wandering the playroom looking for immediate connections.

Quick Pullers Cons Include: Their assertiveness and speed can make newbies or more laid back players uncomfortable, they're really good at hijacking your existing plans, can sometimes feel transactional if you don't spend some extra time together after play.

What to say if you meet a Quick Puller: If you're into their ideas, just say YES and they'll take care of the rest! But if their pace is putting you off simply tell them "we prefer to spend more time getting to know people first" - often this will cause them to switch gears and attempt to match your pace... unless they're also Fantasy Finders... but more on that later!

2. The Daters

Although Quick Pullers can be super fun, the majority of couples need more than 15 minutes before getting naked with a stranger! These folks like to make the initial connection sometime during the day. If all goes well, they want to set up a date to take the conversation further before jumping to playtime. A typical date night on Bliss includes meeting up for dinner or a meet and greet, followed immediately by drinks and dancing for at least an hour or so, THEN playtime.

If you are a Quick Puller or an extremely laid back person, it may seem strange to plan your playtime instead of being purely spontaneous. But this is a big ship with a high likelihood of not seeing the same people all the time. Sometimes a little planning is the only way to make sure you're getting the time you want with a couple. If you are worried about not being in the mood when it's time to meet-up, then simply build more mental foreplay into your plan when structuring the date with your new friends. Something like "Hey can we meet up in the hot tub first?" is a good start.

Dater Pros Include: Never too forward, allows things to develop organically, doesn't force a situation, patience, laid back attitude, often have good date ideas, good at making plans and showing up when/where they say they'll meet you, feels like making new friends.

Dater Cons Include: Daters don't match well with people who can't be on time or who forget plans. Standing up a dater is a sure fire way to lose your chance with them. Try to remember their names too! If you have a tight schedule or pre-existing plans it might be hard to find time to meet up.

What to say if you meet a Dater: If they seem like a couple that can hold your interest for a while then taking the lead and suggesting a date idea first will be impressive! They'll be happy to get a clear indication of interest from you and it will probably be nice for them to not be in charge of plans for once. On the other hand, if you are in a rush for playtime, be sure to make that clear early in conversation by saying "we want to play with a couple tonight!" If they don't want to match your speed then make plans to get to know them better the next day and continue on your mission!

3. The Slow Burners

Just because you make a friendly connection with a couple doesn't mean you have to set a date to play later that night or even the next day. There are plenty of couples on board who are more of a slow-burn and enjoy building the friendship over a few days before playing. These are usually one of two types of couples: newbies who are just dipping their toes in and want to move slowly; or the more seasoned swingers who like to immerse themselves in a lifestyle vacation and have no set agenda. Both types are nice because there is no rushed feeling when making plans. You just want to make sure that it's a compatible couple as soon as possible. Not able to determine compatibility in the first conversation? Come to our Approach, Connect and Close class where we teach you how to navigate conversations and quickly figure out who's a match!

Slow Burners tend to be the same folks that spend a lot of time at Hedo or other lifestyle resorts where you are guaranteed to see the same people every day and have plenty of chances to get to know them. Bliss is different in that there are so many people that it is quite possible to see someone once and then never see them again the rest of the cruise. So you have to be careful if you are a Slow Burner and be sure you've found a couple that is timely, responsive, and easy to meet up with.

Slow Burner Pros Include: All the same benefits as the Daters but even deeper connection. Slow Burners make life-long friends on lifestyle trips and usually have large networks of swingers all over the world. We tend to see swingers migrate from Quick Pullers to Slow Burners over time as they start to look for more than just sex from the lifestyle.

Slow Burner Cons Include: If you think Daters take too long to get naked, don't even bother with the Slow Burners! Your frustration with the slow timeline will not be appreciated and trying to rush them will bring tension to the situation.

What to say if you meet a Slow Burner: If you're also a Slow Burner, tell people upfront about your style. "We really enjoy the process of getting to know a couple. We like to take a few days or a few dates and let the anticipation build. Does that sound sexy to you?". But even if you are a Dater and not a Quick Puller you're still going to want to ask about their timeline early on... there's a big difference between needing one date night and three.

Fantasy Finder Pros Include: They know EXACTLY what they're looking for and if you're it, your night is made! They're a great way to expand your sexual repertoire and have a unique experience.

Fantasy Finder Cons Include: Because the Fantasy Finders have such a clear mission and often a limited time-frame, they can be just as assertive as the Quick Pullers - sometimes even more so! Don't take it personally if a Fantasy Finder abruptly ends the conversation as soon as they discover you don't fit their fantasy. It only makes sense for them to keep searching - and they will.

What to say if you meet a Fantasy Finder: "I am your fantasy!" should be all you have to say if that's actually true. If not then you've only got a few seconds to make an impression, so ask them what OTHER fantasies they have. Maybe you'll be a fit for one of those!

4. The Fantasy Finders

Just because you identify with one of the earlier types doesn't mean you're limited to that mindset all week! It's not uncommon to run into couples that have a specific mission in mind for an evening. These fantasy finders can range from unicorn hunters to hall passes and those coordinating some kind of sex Olympics game. This is the perfect opportunity to check out a meet and greet that lines up with your imagination (kinky M&G, anyone?)

PLAY: Sexual activity and/or physical interaction of a sexual nature with someone other than your partner.

FULL SWAP: “For Those Who Go All The Way” An exchange of partners in which the participants have agreed that intercourse is permissible and a desirable outcome when “playing” with others.

SOFT SWAP: “For those not sure how far they want to go or have established a Rule not to go all the way” This type of play generally includes kissing, touching, stroking, and/or oral sex — just about anything short of penetration. This is also often referred to as soft play, as “swapping” partners is not necessarily an integral part of “soft” activities.

UNICORN: “Not the fairy tale myth with one horn” Refers to a single female.

BONDAGE, DOMINATION, SADO-MASOCHISM — this covers a wide range of different activities, from playful teasing and gentle spanking to the application of intense pain. There is an entire subculture devoted to individual and group exploration of BDSM, with the practice as varied as those who enjoy it. Still Curious? There is a playroom on board referred to as a dungeon or fetish room exclusively devoted to BDSM, with introductory demonstrations. You can watch, volunteer or participate.

HALL PASS: “Isn’t a pass to have sex in the hallways” It is Permission from your partner to engage in sexual activity without your partner being present.

BARE-BACKING: “Not save a horse ride a Cowboy” It is Penetration sex without the use of a condom.

EXHIBITIONISM: “Could it be a Porn Star?” It is engaging in sexual activity while being watched by others.

VOYEURISM: “Not a Spy Game” It is gaining sexual pleasure by watching others who are engaging in sexual activity.

VANILLA: “Nothing to do with Ice cream” A term used to describe those who are not in the lifestyle, for example, “This will be a lifestyle takeover cruise with no vanilla guests on-board.”

COUPLES SPEED DATING:

“Thinking Orgy?” Actually no, each couple is given a minute or two to introduce themselves and determine if there’s any interest in spending more time together. It’s a great way to meet dozens of couples in a short period of time and, to make sure you don’t run out of things to talk about, there’s usually a list of prepared or suggested questions to take the pressure off trying to “make conversation.”

ON-BOARD MEET & GREETINGS AND SEMINARS:

One of the best ways to meet others on the cruise! They are listed in the Bliss Program & Daily On-board Planner, to include days and times! Meet as many couples as you can by going to these meet and greets and seminars -- and then practice your newly learned techniques. Remember, it’s one of the main reasons most couples are on the cruise — to meet others. The subjects will cover a wide range of topics for Newbies & Advanced.

BDE: Big Dick Energy is the energy emitted by someone who has a colossal phallus and doesn’t have to tell anyone about it. The energy speaks for itself. Everyone strives for Big Dick Energy. Only a few possess such a gift.
